REPRODUCTIONS OF FAMOUS PAINTINGS

Special at $1.00 and $1.25

THE FRAMES of these pictures are of powdered gold, which insures them against tarnish. The frames alone are worth much more than we ask for the picture and frame combined.

The subjects are perfect copies of the old masterpieces. Some are mounted with convex glass, thus giving them the very appearance of the genuine old-time miniatures. Others are oil painting fac-simile which, by a new process, have all the rich coloring of the original painting.

There's a splendid variety of subjects, in rectangular, oblong and oval frames—many sizes—some packed in holiday boxes with card attached for gift purposes.

Make your selection as early as possible. Special at $1.00 and $1.25 each.

PRESBYTERIANS ARE NEARING THEIR GOAL

Have Raised $18,901 of Fund of $27,500 for Mission Work in This City.

With only two more days remaining in which to raise the $8,500 necessary to complete the fund of $27,500 for financing extension work in the city of Richmond, the Presbyterians were expected to reach their goal, with the belief that when final reports were made Wednesday afternoon the entire fund will have been subscribed. Reports received yesterday at the noon luncheon showed that $18,901 had been gathered in subscriptions by the canvassers.

The day's returns yesterday included a large number of small subscriptions which were given voluntarily at the church services Sunday. Forty men at the luncheon told of faithful work and of many gifts costing real self-sacrifice. A class of little boys at Hoge Memorial Sunday school gave $150 out of their penny savings. A working girl gave $5 out of her Christmas money. A woman who earns her living by keeping boarders contributed $100. These were only a very few of the contributions made to the campaign as a result of self-denial.

Four of the ministers present reported an aggregate of twenty-four new members received into their churches Sunday. The Richmond men were congratulated on the fine spirit shown and progress made during the campaign by Rev. Edward Mack, D. D., late of McCormick Seminary, and now a member of the faculty of Union Theological Seminary of this city, who was a guest at the luncheon yesterday.

Luncheon will be served the canvassers today and to-morrow at 1:30 o'clock. The final reports of those soliciting contributions will be made to-morrow.

REV. S. ROGER TYLER ADDRESSES ASSEMBLY

Rector of St. Mark's Church Speaks Before Brotherhood of St. Andrew.

REFERS TO EUROPEAN WAR

Great Conflict, He Says, Is Drawing Men Nearer to God—R. Carter Beverly Is Elected President for Ensuing Year.

Rev. S. Roger Tyler, rector of St. Mark's Episcopal Church, delivered an address last night at the annual meeting of the Richmond Assembly, Brotherhood of St. Andrew. His theme was "The Nationwide Preaching Mission." Selecting as his text Psalm xv. 19, "Because they have no chances, therefore, they fear not God," the speaker vividly pictured the terror and desolation in Europe, and compared with it the prosperity of our own land. As a result of the war in Europe, the peoples suffering, he said, were turning to God; the churches were being filled, men in the trenches were thinking of God and praying. "Since the War Between the States, the history of our country," he said, "has been one grand, sweet song."

After portraying the wealth, health and prosperity of the nation, he showed the necessity for remembering God. "We must not forget God," the speaker declared, "and it necessitates a change to make us realize that we are his. With this in mind the Brotherhood of St. Andrew has an opportunity before it such as I have never seen during my ministry, for accomplishing the noble end for which it exists, that of bringing men to Christ through his church, when the Nationwide Preaching Mission begins on December 5 in this city."

REV. G. FRIEDLAND PETER WILL BE SPEAKER

Rev. G. Peyton Craighill, rector of Epiphany Church, Barton Heights, referred to the coming St. Andrew's Day, and hoped the men would attend the annual St. Andrew's Day service of the brotherhood, which, this year, will be held in his parish. Rev. G. Friedland Peter, rector of St. James Church, announced, would be the speaker on the occasion.

Sends Plowshare to Governor Stuart

William J. Bryan Takes Unique Way of Spreading His Peace Propaganda.

"To the State of Virginia, from William Jennings Bryan." That is the inscription engraved on the base of a polished steel plowshare, received through the parcel post by Governor Stuart yesterday.

The useful and ornamental desk appointment is in the form of a miniature plow. On the point of the diminutive plow this quotation from Isaiah II. 4 is engraved: "They shall beat their swords into plowshares." The opposite side carries these inscriptions: "Nothing is final between friends," and "Diplomacy is the art of keeping cool." The distribution of the plowshare is credited by the press to the efforts of the former Secretary of State in spreading his peace propaganda.

CREERY GOES TO PRISON FOR THROWING ACID

Given Five Years in Penitentiary for Injuring His Landlady, Mrs. Lucy Martin.

Five years in the penitentiary was the punishment meted out to the Hustings Court yesterday to William Creery, convicted on the charge of throwing carbolic acid into the face of Mrs. Lucy Martin. Creery was a boarder in Mrs. Martin's house in the eastern section of the city. He had been ordered to stay away from the house unless he could come in a sober condition.

According to the testimony introduced at the trial, Creery reported at the boarding-house one day last September in an intoxicated condition and was ordered away. In a spirit of revenge he entered the home on the night of September 12, and finding Mrs. Martin in bed, threw the contents of a bottle of carbolic acid upon her face, neck and arms.

The acid burned deep into the flesh, and for weeks Mrs. Martin lay in the hospital in a serious condition. It was feared at one time that she would lose her sight. The acid inflicted scars which will remain for life.

William Green pleaded guilty to the charge of forgery, and was sentenced to the penitentiary to serve one year in the penitentiary. He was charged with forging the indorsement of W. M. Miller to a check for $35 drawn on the Kanawha National Bank, of Charleston, W. Va.

James Powell was found guilty of disorderly conduct, and was sentenced to serve six months in jail. Marie Cole was sentenced to serve three months in jail for petit larceny.

CONFERENCE ON DIVIDEND

State and Other Stockholders Seek Larger Disbursement by R. F. & P. Railroad.

A course of action to be followed by the State and other stockholders of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad Company in the matter of a proposed increase in the dividends of the road, was the theme of discussion at a conference held in Governor Stuart's office yesterday afternoon. In conference with the Governor were the members of the State Board of Sinking Fund Commissioners—Auditor Moore, Second Auditor Page and Treasurer Harman—together with representatives of the individual stockholders: Langburne M. Williams, Edmund Strudwick, Jr., Lilburne T. Myers, Granville G. Valentine and James A. Moncreur.

No report was given out when the conference adjourned, but it is understood that another conference was decided upon, to which the railroad corporation will be invited to send representatives.

FOUR HEAVILY FINED

Convicted in Police Court of Selling Liquor Without Licenses—Two Cases Continued.

Four persons were fined $100 and costs yesterday in Police Court for selling liquor without a license. They were Mrs. F. Schultz, of 1545 East Main Street; Eugene Hawley, of 1559 East Main Street; Edward Carter, colored, and James Harris, also colored.

The cases against Mary Black and Blanche Payne, both colored, charged with same offenses, were continued by Justice Crutfield.
